

I am interested in running for the DEI Director of GPSG because I want to be able to have an active role in ensuring that all voices across professional schools are heard regardless of how little in number and how diverse you are. I strive to engage with students and voice the concerns that often times go unheard or unspoken due to the feeling of unimportance due to their diverse background. My goal is to make sure that those voices are heard and represented in GPSG.